

GRAFTON-MIDVIEW PUBLIC LIBRARY

Grafton-Midview Public Library provides a separate library card account to teachers and home educators (Pre-K-12th grade). We hope this service will allow you to provide quality materials to your pupils, while reducing the worry of reaching the maximum lending limits on your personal account.

In order to qualify for an Educator card you must:

- Have a Grafton-Midview Public Library card account in good standing, or apply for one concurrently. If you have a personal account in good standing, we only require one form of identification.
- Show proof of affiliation with school (name badge, pay stub, etc.) or letter of homeschooling status.
- Assume responsibility for overdue, damaged and lost item fees accrued on this account.

Items on Educator Cards have an extended check-out period to accommodate your needs. In order to ensure that others have access to these materials we will not allow renewals on these items, nor will we allow for new materials that are considered non-educational to be checked out onto accounts of this type. You may have up to a maximum of 50 items and the loan times by item type are shown below.

Item Type	Length of Loan
Adult and Juvenile Audiobooks and Playaways	6 Weeks
Non- 7 Day Books	6 Weeks
Magazines	1 Week
New Music with a 7-Day status	1 Week
Regular Music CDs	3 Weeks
3-Day DVDs and Blu-Rays	Cannot be checked out on this account type
7-Day DVDs and Blu-Rays	3 Weeks
Video Games	Cannot be checked out on this account type

The Youth Services and Reference staff would be glad to help pull resources for any upcoming projects you may have. In order to give staff members adequate time to process materials for any holds, please give us 48 hours' notice. A staff member will notify you when your items are available for checkout and we will hold items for 3 days. Items unclaimed after 3 days will be put back into circulation.

Due to the size of our collection and high demand for particular themes and subjects, we may not be able to accommodate all requests and staff reserves the right to limit the number of items selected.
