

GMPL Kids Pathfinders

www.gmplkids.com

path-find-er (noun.) : something to help you find your way to specific information for which you are looking.

INVENTIONS & INVENTORS

HELPFUL WEBSITES

National Inventors Hall of Fame

http://www.invent.org/hall_of_fame/1_1_search.asp

This user-friendly database allows you to search by invention, inventor, and even the decade the invention was created.

MIT's Inventor of the Week Archives

<http://web.mit.edu/invent/i-archive.html>

Visit this Massachusetts Institute of Technology's site to read brief but informational biographies of famous inventors and their inventions.

Library of Congress Selected Resources

<http://www.loc.gov/rr/scitech/selected-internet/inventions.html>

A super library and its resources right at your fingertips! Take a peek at the Library of Congress' list of recommended sites for information in inventions and inventors.

BOOKS & DATABASES

The Encyclopedia of Inventions by Jessica Snyder Sachs

Located in the children's nonfiction section, this book profiles important inventors and inventions and includes 200 full-color pictures, timelines, and a full index.

Inventions & Inventors Volumes 1-10

Each book in the series covers a specific area of technology and is divided into chapters. Full index is included with many pictures, diagrams and drawings. Located in the children's nonfiction section.

Primary Search and Science Online

Visit GMPL.org to access the Ohio Web Library and connect to these excellent, information-rich databases. (hint: try 'inventors' or 'inventions' in the search box.) Library card requirements for usage at home.

Kids Search database

Designed for elementary and middle school students, this database is user-friendly and offers plenty of articles and other information on particular people and places. (hint: try 'inventions' in the search box.) Visit GMPL.org to access Ohio Web Library and connect. Library card requirements for usage at home.

